Special to The Evening World.

AMBASSADOR HERRICK SAILS TO DUTY IN FRANCE.

Mission That Brought Thanks of French Nation Also Departs.

Myron T. Herrick sailed on the steamship France today to take up his duties as Ambassador to France. It is said that this is the first time an Ambassador has ever been returned to the Nation in which he had before represented this country. When Mr. Herrick's attention was called to this, he said:

"I suppose that one reason why I am # being sent back to Paris is that the Government doesn't believe I'm broke.

From all I hear, every Ambassador comes home in that condition, because he falls in love with the country to which he is accredited and spends all his money there."

The French Mission, headed by Marshal Poyat, which has been visiting this country and Canada to return thanks for the aid given in the World War, Mr. and Mrs. John Barrymore, Miss Jacques Lebaudy, acquitted of the murder of her husband some years ago, and Capt. Pierre Millet, Georges Carpentier's close friend, were also among the passengers.

SOVIET AID SOCIETY WATCHED BY U. S. AGENTS.

Membership of 100,000 Sought For Technical Instruction.

Close surveillance is being maintained by the Department of Justice over the activities of the Society of Technical Aid for Soviet Russia, meetings of which are held at No. 7 East 15th Street, where the Hand School also meets. Since a cablegram from Ludwig A. K. Martens, deported Ambassador from Soviet Russia, was printed in a Jewish newspaper, the Department of Justice has accepted with reservations the proposal of the society that its purpose is to enroll persons capable of giving technical instructions to others intending to return to Russia to aid in that country's reconstruction. Martens' cablegram stated he was a member of the committee. The appeal for increased membership, in addition to asking technical men to join, urged girls to go to Russia as stenographers, bookkeepers and office assistants. The society has but 6,000 members at present, but hopes for a membership of 100,000.
